

On 16th of November 2023 in Split, Croatia, Croatian wound association - croatian initiative again took part in the worldwide stop pressure ulcer day and raised awareness for the common goal. In cooperation with University of Split University Department of Health Studies, Alumni association and Polyclinic Podologija we held a lecture in University Department of Health Studies about prevention.

